"In 1964 and 1965, out of one of the dirtiest, ugliest, most despised parts of London where two prisons bar the streets like warning fingers, a co-educational comprehensive school shot into the newspapers headlines. The school was Risinghill, in Islington. This is its story, told often in the words of pupils, and parents, the story of its courageous headmaster, Michael Duane, and the story of its eventual closure"

MICHAEL DUANE:- IF OUR SOCIETY WERE TO GIVE UP THE HYPOCRITICAL PRETENCE THAT THIS IS A CHRISTIAN SOCIETY ACTUATED BY CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES WHEN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE WEALTHY AND THE POOR IS SO BLATANT, AND WERE TO BEND ITS EFFORTS TO MAKING CHRISTIAN LOVE OR BASIC DEMOCRACY A REALITY, THEN THERE WOULD BE NO LIMIT TO THE PROGRESS WE COULD ACHIEVE WITH OUR CHILDREN.
