Romeo & Juliet

An age-old vendetta between two powerful families erupts into bloodshed.

Lord Capulet has arranged a party to introduce his daughter, Juliet, to Paris, the man he wants her to marry. A group of masked Montagues gatecrashes the party and Romeo and Juliet meet and fall in love, each unaware that the other should be a deadly enemy. In haste, they marry, intending to present their families with a fait accompli. Immediately after the secret wedding, Romeo unwillingly becomes caught up in renewed fighting, which leaves his best friend dead and Romeo guilty of killing Juliet's cousin in revenge. Romeo is banished from Verona.

Will the lovers see each other again?

Will Juliet be forced into a bigamous marriage with Paris?

Will anything reconcile the Montagues and the Capulets?

This production will be held on the Sundial Lawn in the stunning outdoor splendour of

Townhill Park House

(The Gregg School).

Limited tickets available for this intimate production.

Patrons are welcome to picnic in the beautiful grounds from 6.00pm
