'PERFECT NONSENSE'

Country House Capers

Aristocratic buffoon Bertie Wooster decides to present a one-man show to the audience about a recent, spectacular, and rather disastrous, weekend.

The "perfectly delightful" weekend at a country house goes awry, forcing Bertie to play matchmaker to rescue the engagement of his friend Gussie to the "drippy" Madeline. If he fails to engineer a happy ending, Bertie will be forced into an unwanted marriage with Madeline himself. A series of misadventures follow, including the theft of a novelty cow creamer.

As Bertie's show descends into chaotic mismanagement of props and scenery, his unflappable valet, Jeeves, steps in with his friend and colleague, Seppings, in a valiant attempt to save the day.

*Is it curtains for bumbling batchelor, Bertie?
Or will Jeeves save the day?*

A warm welcome and licensed bar awaits you at our easy-to-find Studio Theatre.

Stairlift and disabled toilet facilities available.

There is no parking at the theatre but plenty of local car parks are available off Shirley High Street. Please allow sufficient time for parking.

Theatre doors open at 7pm.
